PYNKIE - project of New Jersey-based musician and ortho/neuro nurse Lindsey Radice - will release her new album, #37, this Friday, October 16th on House Arrest. Today, you can stream the full album via Hype Machine. In the last few weeks, Radice has shared a slew of singles and videos - "Vacation," "Love Theme," and "Personality," which have led up to the release of #37. It's an absolute joy of a record, a tour through Radice's own sunlit world. #37 is a collage of daily life moments, delivered with a precision, skill, and an ear for hooks that shows the deep level of craft behind even the easiest-sounding moments. The songs are driven by Radice's singular voice, with a mixture of wit, warmth, and candor that makes you feel like she's already your best friend.

Praise for PYNKIE

"'Love Theme' tells the tale of wistful romance. Over subdued percussion, glittering synths and sporadic abstract sound effects, Pynkie (aka Lindsey Radice) sings breathily... A hook consisting of pretty ad-libs leads to lilting harmonies, and the gauzy song finishes as effortlessly as it begins." - Cool Hunting

"#37 has the lush and wistful warmth of a summer day turning autumnal at its close. Woozing synth chords, chirpy drums and lackadaisical guitar melodies supporting the raw and introspective vocals, which lend a poignancy and maturity to the often outwardly adolescent lyrics." - 25 Years Later

"This year has given us enough drama and anxiety. What we need now is music that returns us to our carefree days. PYNKIE is just the artist to fill that need." - The Revue

"PYNKIE's world is one of insatiable charm and infectious fun." - Our Culture Mag
