“Relentless and hypnotic...This is art that harnesses the kaleidoscopic potential of collage to expand our cognitive apparatus.” - The Wire

Office Hours Live - the weekly podcast with Tim Heidecker, DJ Douggpound, and Vic Berger IV - announces DROP CONCERT: THE MOTION PICTURE, premiering online on Friday, Nov. 20th at 7pm PT and Saturday, Nov. 21st at 8pm PT. Q&As with Tim Heidecker, DJ Douggpound and Vic Berger IV (aka the holy trinity), plus genius animator/musician Ben Levin, and very special guest moderators will follow each screening.

DROP CONCERT: THE MOTION PICTURE captures and reshapes DROP CONCERT, an experimental music performance by DJ Douggpound and Vic Berger IV based on their signature "drops" - obscure soundbites, pop culture audio clips, and their own loops and effects. The event was hosted by Heidecker, who also sat in on keyboard for a section of this fully improvised show. The original performance was streamed live for the Office Hours Patreon community in August 2020 and subsequently turned into DROP CONCERT: THE MOTION PICTURE with animation by Ben Levin.
