“Mosswood Meltdown is here and Oakland’s going to have to duct-tape us to our seats because we’re hot to trot, infected with attitude, nuts from social distancing and ready to slam dance to the moon.” - John Waters

After two years of delays, Mosswood Meltdown is finally making its debut at Oakland’s Mosswood Park on Saturday, July 2nd and Sunday, July 3rd, 2022! Today, they announce their stacked lineup, featuring Kim Gordon, Bikini Kill, The Dirtbombs, Bleached, Hunx and His Punx, Shannon Shaw, The Linda Lindas, and more. Of course, you can’t have a Meltdown without our punktastic leader, John Waters, who will be hosting the festivities.

All tickets purchased for the 2020 concert will be honored at this year's event. A full lineup can be found below and tickets for the festival are on sale now.

Attendees will need to be fully vaccinated or have a negative COVID test within 48 hours prior to the start date of the event (July 2, 2022).
