Kevin Morby and Waxahatchee have teamed up and released a pair of covers in support of the Vote No Kansas PAC, whose mission is to prevent House Bill 2746 from passing if the “Value Them Both” amendment (HCR 5003) is passed. If passed, the amendment would allow the legislature to completely ban abortion. There is already a proposed ban (HB2746) that could be made law if the amendment passed. As Kansas residents, Waxahatchee’s Katie Crutchfield and Kevin Morby are passionate about raising money for the organization and getting the word out to local voters about this important election.

All proceeds from their Broadcast ("Tears in the Typing Pool") and Guided By Voices ("The Goldheart Mountaintop Queen Directory") covers, available now exclusively through Bandcamp, will go to Vote No Kansas.

"With the overturning of Roe v. Wade, the state of Kansas, where we live, has become a really important haven for bordering states in the fight for access to reproductive healthcare," the couple says in a statement. "There's an amendment to the state constitution in the upcoming election that would put abortion rights at risk. We're asking Kansas folks to vote no on this amendment in the August 2nd election and we're supporting Vote No Kansas, an amazing local organization raising awareness about this issue. We record covers on a 4-track at home from time to time, so we're releasing 2 of those today on Bandcamp. It's a sliding scale starting at $5 and all funds raised will go directly to Vote No Kansas."

Melinda Lavon, Chair of Vote No Kansas says "It's vital that we have music to process and express what is going on around us and our reaction to it. This historic vote in Kansas over our rights to bodily autonomy and reproductive care is our only voice in the matter! If we fail in August our constitution will be changed and our rights quickly lost."

"We're so grateful to everyone working to help raise funds and awareness around this amendment. There's a lot of misinformation being intentionally spread that will lead many folks to vote away their own rights. We'll continue spreading the truth about what this vote means for Kansas and working to get folks out to vote NO," adds Jasmine Bates, Treasurer of Vote No Kansas.

Additionally the pair is bringing back their early quarantine staple Instagram Live "Weekly Rodeo" livestream, featuring special guests, tonight, Thursday 7/21, at 7 pm CST / 8 pm EST.
