Karin Dreijer returns as Fever Ray with their new track “What They Call Us,” written and co-produced with their former The Knife member Olof Dreijer. The video is written and directed by long-time collaborator Martin Falck.

first I'd like to say that I'm sorry I've done all the tricks that I can cinnamon bun in the oven there's a fire in my hand did you see the light this morning sometimes there's this extra air sometimes I can keep my mouth open I will stay if I dare

*did you hear what they call us?
did you hear what they said?
my plan was flexible don't get stuck anywhere*

can I just hold you for a minute some things just ain't easy to repair the person who came here was broken can you fix it, can you care

did you hear what they said?
I've got a plan that's flexible
just don't stop anywhere*

*it's a common misperception this is not a band
ready for a dissection now mommy's gotta work, see the land*

just don't stop anywhere*
