Mosswood Meltdown is returning July 1st and July 2nd, 2023 to Oakland's Mosswood Park for "two full days of unhinged punk mayhem" (CBS). Today, they announce their full 2023 lineup. In addition to previously-announced headliners Le Tigre and a slew of other festival-favorite acts like Gravy Train!!!!, newly-announced artists include Bratmobile for their first public performance in over 20 years, Mika Miko for their first show in a decade, ESG, J.J. Fad, The Avengers, Snooper, and more. The iconic and illustrious John Waters will once again bring his inimitable energy to host throughout the weekend, as well as the opening night Pre-Party at Thee Stork Club. "Mosswood Meltdown is like a July 4th musical pyrotechnic display that explodes all on its own with slamming human cherry bombs, moshing punk-rock roman candles and scary screaming sparklers of every race and gender," says Waters. "These are my people and I can't wait to light the fuse on stage."

The full lineup can be found below. Tickets are on sale now.
